Please write plainly; use ink; do not use pencil. Physicians: please write the causes of death clearly and legibly. Any false statement, omission, or concealment of facts called for on this certificate may subject the informant to a penalty for perjury. Cause of death must be entered by a physician, if any such is in attendance during last illness; if not, the coroner must be notified immediately. Do not report "old age" as the cause of death, but state the primary cause, as "cerebral hemorrhage," "pneumonia," etc. "Old age" is the cause of death only in those cases in which no other cause can be assigned. Deaths from violence must be reported to the coroner, whether apparently due to accident, suicide, or homicide. Violent deaths must be reported immediately to the coroner, and no certificate shall be issued until he has investigated the case and authorized the issuance of a certificate
